

Bankura University
3-yrs LL.B. (H), Sem-I Examination, 2021
Jurisprudence and Legal Theory
Course Code: LB101C

Answer any five questions
The figures in the margin indicate full marks

Time- 3 hrs

F.M.-80

1. Define Jurisprudence. Discuss the Nature, Scope and Importance of Jurisprudence. (4+12=16)
2. Explain the important factors responsible for the revival of Natural Law in the present century. (16)
3. “Doctrine of Precedent” is a life of every modern legal system, but is operative along with the power of overruling. – Explain the concept of Precedent and elaborate the circumstances destroying the binding force of a judicial precedent. (16)
4. “According to Jerome Frank the court room should be the laboratory for those who studying law” – In the basis of the above stated comment critically discuss the Realist Movement in America. (16)
5. a) Discuss the characteristics of Legal Rights.
b) “Rights and Duties are co-related to each other” – Critically evaluate Hohfeld’s analysis of the relationship between right and duty in the basis of above stated statement. (6+10)
6. Write short notes on the following topics : (Any four) (4x4)
  - a) Volkgeist Theory;
  - b) Duguit’s Social Solidarity Theory;
  - c) Essentials of Customs;
  - d) Advantages of Legislation;
  - e) Reformatory Theory of Punishment;
7. a) “Possession begins only with union of animus and corpus” – Do you agree with this statement? - Elucidate.
b) Distinguish between Ownership and Possession. (10+6)
8. Distinguish between Natural Person and Artificial Person. Discuss the Position of Corporate Personality in India. (8+8=16)