

M.S.W 2nd Semester Examination, 2022
Social Work

Course Title: Psychology for Social Work Practice

Course Code: PG/SW/202/C

Course ID: 22852

Full Marks: 80

Time: 3 hours

*The figures in the right hand side margin indicate full marks.
Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.*

Answer any five from the following questions:

1. What is social psychology? How is it different from other branches of psychology? Explain the relevance of psychology in social work profession. 4+4+8 = 16
2. What do you mean by human behaviour? Explain how heredity and environment play important roles in generating individual differences in human behaviour? 6+5+5 = 16
3. What is instrumental approach to learning? Illustrate operant conditioning giving relevant examples from field work and daily life. 8+8 = 16
4. What is emotion? Enumerate the traits of an emotionally intelligent person. Describe how emotions are different from feelings. 4+4+8 = 16
5. What are motives? What do you understand by the motivation cycle? Explain Maslow's hierarchy of needs with relevant examples. 3+5+8 = 16
6. Describe the stages of psycho-sexual development of personality by Sigmund Freud. Discuss its significance in shaping the personality of an individual. 8+8 = 16
7. Write a note on Erickson's stages of psycho-social development. 16
8. Write short notes on any two of the following topics: 8×2 = 16
 - (a) Methods related to psychology
 - (b) Frustration
 - (c) Psychoanalytic theory
 - (d) Group influence on individual behaviour