

MSW 1st Semester Examination 2023-24

SOCIAL WORK

Course ID : 10051 Course Code : PG/SW/10100101

Course Title : History, Philosophy and Development of Social Work

Time : 3 Hours

Full Marks : 80

The figures in the right hand margin indicate full marks

Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable

Answer any five questions : 16x5=80

1. Describe critically the origin, development and challenges of professional social work education in India. What should be the role of a professional social worker? 16x5
2. Name the primary and secondary methods of social work intervention. Explain how will you implement the primary methods of social work intervention in your field work setting with suitable examples. 2x14
3. Narrate the history and development of professional social work in U.K. and USA. 8x8
4. Write an essay on the nineteenth century and early twentieth century social reform movements in India and how those influenced the social work practice in India. 16

(Turn Over)

5. Is there a correlation between 'social work' and 'social movement'?-Explain briefly in your own words. Critically elaborate the contributions made by various social movements in post-colonial India. 4+12
6. "Philosophers have hitherto only interpreted the world in various ways; the point is to change it"- Elaborate analytically how Marxism has tried to change the world through radical social work practice and social activism? State the four basic concepts of Marxism with suitable examples. 8+8
7. What do you understand by 'Civil Society'? State analytically the roles played by CSOs, CBOs, NGOs and INGOs in India with appropriate examples from each category. 4+12
8. Write short notes on any two of the following topics : 8×2=16
- Rabindranath Tagore and rural development in India.
 - Vivekanda and Ramkrishna Mission in the fields of social work.
 - Ethics and values of professional social work practice.
 - Emerging areas and trends in the field of social work practice.