

LLM Semester-II Examination, 2023

LAW

Course ID : 22754

Course Code : 204E(Gr.-B)

Course Title : Comparative Administrative Law

Time : 3 Hours

Full Marks : 80

The figures in the right-hand margin indicate marks.

Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.

Answer any four questions.

1. "In England the existence of the Administrative Law as a separate branch of Law was not recognized until the advent of the twentieth century." Elaborate in detail the above statement and how far this development was different from the development that took place in France. 20
2. Elucidate Wednesbury's Principles of Unreasonableness'. Do these principles provide in any way, scope for 'merits review' of administrative decisions? 20
3. Give a comparative account of the English Ombudsman and the Indian Lokpal and Lokayukta, with the help of framework of the law and cases handled by the institutions. 20

4. What do you mean by "Tortious Liability of State"? Referring decisions of the Supreme Court explain in relation to "Sovereign Function and Non-sovereign function" of State. 20
5. Critically examine the evolution of Right to information in legal system of UK and India. 20
6. "The Supreme Court of America may declare a law unconstitutional as according to court they were not fair, just and reasonable. However, what is just and fair is a political and not a legal question because the concept of justness and fairness is a byproduct of due process of law."— In the light of the above statement critically examine the power of judicial review of Supreme Court of USA. 20

[Turn Over]